

No.	Name of Film	Language*	Condition	Summary	Running Time	Location
DVDs
1.	Maji ni Uhai (Water is Life)	S	Poor	Educational film about the water cycle (occurrence of rain), the importance of water in general and how young people can take care of water resources	45 min	Tanzania
2.	Miti ni Uhai (Trees are Life)	S	Poor	Looks at why trees are important to the environment and to us	25 min	Tanzania
3.	Wanted Dead or Alive	S, E, M	Good	Importance of elephants, how to manage and take care of them, the fight against poaching and the international ivory trade ban	50 min	Kenya
4.	Elephant of Tsavo	S, E	Good	A continuation of "Wanted Dead or Alive"	50 min	Kenya
5.	A Keepers Diary	S, E	Good	Talks about keepers of wildlife who saved orphaned elephant babies whose mothers were poached	62 min	Kenya
6.	Keepers of the Kingdom	S, E	Good	Educates about the importance of the elephant to the environment and to enhancing biodiversity	50 min	Kenya
7.	The Tombs Below Aruba	S, E	Good	The giant dung beetle (Heliocopris) depends on the elephant's dung for surviving and elephants depend on dung beetles as well	50 min	Kenya
8.	The Meanest Animal in the World	S, E	Good	Educates about the honey badger's life style, how it is has a fearsome reputation as when defending its self against dangerous foes	50 min	Kenya
9.	Walking Birds	S, E	Poor	The life history of ground hornbills, who spend more time walking than flying	55 min	Kenya

MAAJABU DETAILED FILM LIBRARY

Last updated 5-10-2008

No.	Name of Film	Language*	Condition	Summary	Running Time	Location
10.	Running Dry	S, E	Poor	An educational film about water issues explaining the water cycle, and threats to water availability due to deforestation and pollution.	82 min	Kenya
11.	The Great Ruaha River	S, E	Poor (Some parts scratched)	Educates about the River Ruaha as the life line for people and wildlife in and near Ruaha National Park, and how human activities at the source of river take too much water, threatening life down the stream (including generation of hydro-electric power at Mtera Dam)	60 min	Tanzania
12.	Mbwa Mwitwa wa Africa ("A tale of Two Sisters")	S	Poor	It shows the fascinating behavior of the wild dogs and discovers there fragile and struggle for survival.	53 min	Tanzania
13.	Earth Watch	E	Good	To help people who use and enjoy lake resources. To learn more about its ecology, wildlife, water and how to protect lake resources.		Kenya
14.	Kilimanjaro (To the Roof of Africa)	E	Good	Tells about climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, where ordinary people come to do some thing extraordinary in a place between heaven and earth	40 min	Tanzania
15.	Women on the Run, Hyena Square	S, E	Good (Part of Hyena Squire scratched)	Educates about problems facing women in Tanzania, Uganda and Kenya, some run to escape from life as a child soldier, some from genital cutting. Also educates about HIV/AIDS infection.	40 min	Tanzania Kenya Uganda
16.	Iringa Wild Hunting Dog	S, E	Good	Management of wild dogs in Ruaha National Park	50 min	Tanzania
Video Cassettes
17.	Maji ni Uhai (Water is Life)	S, E	Good	Described on the DVD above

*Language = Swahili, English, Maasai

MAAJABU DETAILED FILM LIBRARY

Last updated 5-10-2008

No.	Name of Film	Language*	Condition	Summary	Running Time	Location
18.	Black Rhino on the Brink	S, E	Good	A historical and in-depth account of the Black Rhino's slide towards extinction and the combined efforts of many people of various African countries to reverse this decline	65 min	Tanzania, Kenya and S. Africa
19.	Wawili Porini	S, E	Good	About Alan Root and his wife and their efforts in recording wildlife films done with love and care for wildlife	40 min	Tanzania
20.	The Great Ruaha River	S, E	Good	Described on the DVD above
21.	Natural Security	S, E, M	Good	It shows that natural resources are the foundation of all life but their use has to be balanced against the population number. The films show how people benefit from their natural ecosystems.	52 min	Kenya
22.	A Season in the Sun	S	Good	Looks at two seasons in the year, how aquatic animals suffering during dry season. Also shows the effects of the bush fire. Lastly shows the happiness and the life process of the wildlife after the heavy rain.	52 min	Tanzania
23.	Castles of the Clay	S	Good	This is about the story of the ants, how they work in groups and protecting their queen. Generally shows their life style in their clay soil houses.	52 min	Tanzania
24.	Mwanga wa Jua na Kivuli	S	Good	Educates about the life and history of the Leopard and the Cheater, shows their similarities and differences.	50 min	Tanzania
25.	Year of the Wildebeest	S	Good	It is about the Wildebeest of the Serengeti. The film shows the life situation and struggling crossing the flooded rivers and escaping their enemies	52 min	Tanzania
26.	Together They Stand	S, E	Good	About the dwarf mongoose living in the world full of danger...shows a social life that humans could well envy	56 min	Tanzania

*Language = Swahili, English, Maasai

