SCHEDULES

THE WILDLIFE CONSERVATION (HUNTING OF ANIMALS) REGULATIONS
(Section 32)

[8th November, 1974]

G.N. No. 272 of 1974

1. Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Wildlife Conservation (Hunting of Animals) Regulations, and shall come into operation on the date of the commencement of the Wildlife Conservation Act ⁱ* (hereinafter referred to as "the Act").

2. Interpretation

In these Regulations—

"prescribed" in relation to a form means a form prescribed in a Schedule to these Regulations;

"prescribed fee" in relation to a licence for the hunting of any animal means the fee prescribed in relation to such animal in the Third and Fourth Schedules to these Regulations;

"resident" means a person ordinarily resident in the United Republic;

"resident licence" means a licence issued to a resident individual upon payment by such individual of the prescribed fee.

3. Game licence

(1) Every game licence shall be in Form 2 prescribed in the Second Schedule and no licence shall be granted except upon an application made by the applicant in the Form 1 prescribed in the First Schedule and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) Every game licence shall be valid only in relation to the area, if any, specified therein and shall not constitute an authority for hunting in any other area.

4. Fee for game licence

The fee for a game licence issued to a resident individual shall be such as is prescribed in the Third Schedule to these Regulations:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Director to levy additional fee for any animal hunted in a game reserve.

5. Resident licence

A resident licence shall authorise the holder to hunt not more than one animal of the species specified in the licence:

Provided that—

- (a) where in the case of an animal of any species the number of the animals which may be hunted under the authority of any one licence is specified in the third column of the Third Schedule to be two or more it shall be lawful for the holder of that licence to hunt animals of that species not exceeding the number specified;
- (b) the total number of birds to be hunted per year by any one resident individual shall not exceed one hundred.

6. Bag may be limited

The maximum number of animals of each type that may be hunted by an authorised association shall be determined by the Director according to the needs of the association and the availability of the game, and any determination made by the Director under this regulation shall be deemed to be a condition annexed to the licence granted to the organisation.

7. Grant of licence to authorised association

A licence granted to an authorised association for the hunting of any animal specified in the Third Schedule may be issued free or subject to such fee as the Minister may determine and any determination made by the Minister under this regulation shall be deemed to be a condition annexed to the licence granted to such association.

8. Sale of meat

No resident person or authorised association shall sell the meat of any animal hunted pursuant to a game licence granted under these Regulations, except where the Director has by a writing under his hand authorised the sale of that meat.

9. Director to determine maximum bag for designated organisation

The maximum number of animals of each type that may be hunted by a designated organisation under the authority of any one licence shall be determined by the Director according to the needs and game availability and any such determination shall be deemed to be a condition annexed to the licence:

Provided that where no determination under this Regulation has been made only one animal of the species specified in the licence may be hunted under the authority of that licence except where the licence specifically authorises the hunting of two or more of such animals and the prescribed fee has been paid in relation to each such animal.

10. Fees payable by designated organisation

The fee payable by a designated organisation for the hunting of any animal specified in the Fourth Schedule shall be such as is prescribed in that Schedule in relation to the animal.

11. Hunting on behalf of organisation prohibited

It shall be lawful for a designated organisation to grant a permit to any person to hunt on behalf of that organisation any animal for the hunting of which the designated organisation holds a valid licence, and where the permit is issued—

- (a) the holder of the permit shall be deemed to be an agent of the designated organisation issuing the permit;
- (b) the designated organisation shall make arrangements for the collection of the meat and other trophies of the animal hunted by the holder of the permit;
- (c) the permit shall not constitute an authority for hunting otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions annexed to the licence granted to the designated organisation;
- (d) in the event of the existing arrangement between the designated organisation and the holder of the permit for any trophy of the animal hunted by the holder of the permit to be retained by him, it shall be the responsibility of the designated organisation as well as the holder of the permit to ensure that all the formalities necessary for conferring upon the holder of the permit a lawful title to the trophy are complied with;
- (e) it shall be lawful for the designated organisation to annex further terms and conditions to the permit, and every such term or condition so annexed shall have effect as if it were a term or condition annexed to the licence pursuant to which the permit is issued and a contravention of the term or condition by the holder of the permit shall render him liable to the same penalties as a contravention of a term or condition annexed to the licence:

Provided that no term or condition annexed to a permit shall be inconsistent with any term or condition annexed to the licence held by the designated organisation and to which the permit relates or with any directions of a general or specific nature given in that behalf by the Director by a writing under his hand;

- (f) subject to directions given by the Minister in that behalf, it shall be lawful for a designated organisation to charge such fees for permits issued under this regulation as it may from time to time determine.

12. Valid game licence

Except where the Director otherwise directs, a game licence shall be valid for—

- (a) in the case of an animal which is a specified animal for the purpose of Part IV of the Act, one month;
- (b) in any other case, seven days, fourteen days, twenty-one days or thirty days, as may be specified in the licence.

13. Hunting without identity card prohibited

No resident individual shall be granted a game licence unless he holds an identity card in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule, and which bears a serial number and upon which are recorded the name and address of the holder and such other particulars as are specified in these Regulations.

14. Licensing officer to issue identity card

(1) An identify card under regulation 13 shall be issued to a resident individual by a licensing officer upon being satisfied that the person applying for that card is ordinarily resident in the United Republic, wishes to apply for a game licence and was not previously issued with an identity card.

(2) A hunter's identify card shall not be valid unless it bears—

- (a) the hunter's photograph affixed on the appropriate space provided for the purpose;
- (b) the hunter's signature;
- (c) the signature of the issuing officer and the official stamp of the Game Division so affixed that a portion of it falls on the photograph;
- (d) a record of the weapons possessed by the hunter.

(3) A licensing officer shall on issuing a licence to a resident individual record on his identity card, the particulars of the licence in the relevant columns.

(4) Where a resident hunter has hunted an animal he shall, as soon as may be practicable, produce the licence and the identity card to a licensing officer who shall record on the identity card such particulars relating to the hunting and the animal hunted as are required to be recorded on the card.

15. Resident to carry identity card

Every resident individual shall carry his identity card whenever he is hunting or proceeding on a hunting tour.

16. Loss or destruction of identity card

When a resident hunter's identity card is lost, destroyed, defaced or otherwise rendered unusable for further recording of particulars to be recorded thereon—

- (a) in the case of the identity card having been lost or destroyed, the owner shall forthwith report the circumstances of the loss or destruction to the police and to the licensing officer of the District in which he is resident and on an application being made by the owner to the Director for a duplicate of the identity card, the Director may authorise a licensing officer to issue such duplicate;
- (b) in any other case, on the identity card being surrendered to a licensing officer, a fresh identity card may be issued to the owner of the card so surrendered.

17. Authorised and designated associations

For the purposes of the Act and these Regulations—

- (a) an Ujamaa Village approved as an Ujamaa Village by the then Regional Development Council of the area in which the Ujamaa Village operates is hereby declared to be an authorised association;
- (b) the Tanzania Wildlife Corporation established under the Public Corporations Act ^{ii*}, and all the subsidiary companies of the said Corporation are hereby declared to be designated organisations.

18. Grant of a game licence

Where any game licence is granted to—

- (a) an authorised association, it shall be lawful for any member of that association to hunt under the authority of that licence;
- (b) a designated organisation, it shall be lawful for any employee of the organisation, authorised in that behalf by a writing under the seal of the organisation, and any person authorised in that behalf by a permit issued by the organisation, to hunt

under the authority of that licence:

Provided that no member of an authorised association shall hunt any animal except when accompanied by an authorised officer appointed for that purpose.

19. Formulation of hunting and game utilisation procedures

Subject to the provisions of the Act, these Regulations and any written directions given by the Director in that behalf, an authorised association or a designated organisation may formulate its own hunting and game utilisation procedures and Regulations.

20. Offences

Any person who contravenes any provision of these Regulations or makes any false statement in any application or other document or to any authorised officer performing any function under the Act or any subsidiary legislation commits an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both that fine and imprisonment.

21. Forms to be used

The forms prescribed by these Regulations shall be used where applicable subject to such variations as circumstances may require, and it shall be lawful for the Director to vary, alter or amend any prescribed form if in his opinion it is necessary or convenient so to do.
